Professional Experience

- University of Toronto 2007 - 2018
Toronto, Canada

Professor. The University of Toronto created the School of Public Policy and Governance in 2007 and Clark has participated in the professional development component of the curriculum, in the creation of The Atlas of Public Management and in the student-run journal the Public Policy and Governance Review. Clark retired on 30 June 2018.

- Council of Ontario Universities 1998 - 2007
Toronto, Canada

President and CEO. The President, with a staff of 35, guided and supported the work of the 18 university executive heads and other senior administrators in advancing the Council's mission of providing leadership on issues facing provincially assisted universities by participating in the development of relevant public policy and fostering cooperation among the universities and the government.

- KPMG Canada 1996 - 1998
Toronto, Canada

Partner, KPMG Canada and Research Director, KPMG Centre for Government Foundation. Management consulting to a range of Canadian institutions on governance and management improvement issues. As Research Director of the KPMG Centre for Government Foundation Clark oversaw work into the implications of information technology on organizational design.

- International Monetary Fund 1994 - 1996
Washington, DC

Executive Director. Clark represented Canada, Ireland and ten Caribbean countries on the IMF's decision-making body. He was a member of the Budget Committee and the first chairman of the Executive Board's Evaluation Group.

- Treasury Board of Canada 1989 - 1994
Ottawa, Canada

Secretary of the Treasury Board and (from 1993) Comptroller General of Canada. Clark was the most senior official with full-time responsibility for the management of the federal public service, including public service reform, governance of Crown corporations, and regulatory policy. He oversaw changes in policies and legislation relating to financial practices, information technology, labour relations, employment equity, pensions, job classification and government reorganization.

- Department of Consumer and Corporate Affairs 1987 - 1989
Ottawa, Canada

Deputy Minister. Clark was responsible for a department of 2,200 people with a variety of policy, inspection and operating activities and a national service delivery structure. He oversaw the implementation of major changes in competition policy and patent law, as well as development of legislation respecting bankruptcy, trademarks, and lobbying.
- Privy Council Office 1982 - 1987
Ottawa, Canada

Deputy Secretary (Plans). Clark was responsible for the support to the Priorities and Planning Committee of Cabinet and for liaison between the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance in preparing Budgets. He had oversight responsibilities for the Privy Council Office work respecting machinery of government, government communications and the legislative planning.
- Ministry of State of Economic Development 1979 – 1982
Ottawa, Canada

Director, then Deputy Secretary (Operations). Clark and his branch provided analytical support to the Cabinet Committee on Economic Development.
- Department of Regional Economic Expansion 1974 - 1979
Ottawa, Canada

Director, then Director General (Analysis and Liaison). Clark and his group provided policy and analytical projects to support the operations of the department.
- Ministry of State for Urban Affairs 1973 - 1974
Ottawa, Canada

Executive Assistant to the Minister. Head of the Minister’s personal staff.
- Treasury Board Secretariat 1972 - 1973
Ottawa, Canada

Analyst. Clark began his career in the federal government as a junior officer in the recently-created Planning Branch of the Treasury Board Secretariat.
- Division of Engineering and Applied Physics 1969 - 1972
Harvard University, Cambridge, Massachusetts

Research Fellow. Clark conducted research on reactions in the stratosphere and undertook a study for the National Science Foundation on the role of scientific advice in the decision to cancel the commercial supersonic transport project.
